

Damaso Reyes: THE TIES THAT BIND

Photo exhibition & discussion

Thursday, February 21, 2013

6 p.m.

Amerika Haus

Damaso Reyes is the principal photographer of "The Europeans," a long term photographic documentary project examining the changes that Europe and its people are experiencing as the European Union expands and continues to integrate. The Ties That Bind features black-and-white photographs taken in Austria, Hungary and Slovakia.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, Damaso Reyes has been a photojournalist for 15 years. His credits include: The New York Times, The Associated Press, The Wall Street Journal, The Miami Herald, The San Francisco Chronicle, Der Spiegel and Time Asia. Previous assignments and projects have taken him to countries including Rwanda, Iraq, Indonesia, Tanzania, and throughout the United States and Europe. His images are also featured in the monograph, Black: A Celebration of a Culture, and the book, Innocents Lost: When Child Soldiers go to War.

Address: Friedrich-Schmidt-Platz 2

1010 Wien

Registration: programs@usembassy.at

U.S. Embassy Vienna

Like us on  Follow us on  Watch us on

By participating in this event you consent to the publication of images/videos taken during the event.